

People using aged care

2017-18

The majority of people using aged care were using home support

2 in 3 people in aged care were women

Around 70% of people in aged care were in a major city

The number of people in residential care and home care has increased by 37% over the last decade

2008 203,000

2012 225,000

2018 278,000

Around 1 in 3 people in residential aged care were born overseas

Only 1% of people in residential aged care identified as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander

